

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

BLANKS.

We have just printed, and shall keep constantly on hand, Justices', Constables' and Lawyers' Blanks, gotten up in the most approved styles, and printed on a good quality of paper.

NATHAN ALDRICH, Esq., is our authorized agent at Edinboro, Pa., to procure subscriptions, advertisements, etc.

ORRIN T. WELCH, Esq., is our authorized agent at Edinboro, Pa., to procure subscriptions, advertisements, etc.

CONSUMERS & SAVORERS, proprietors of the Mechanics Advertising and Collecting Agency, are agents for this paper in the cities of Philadelphia and Baltimore.

TOWNSHIP TREASURER'S RECEIPTS.—We have just printed and shall keep constantly on hand Township Treasurer's Tax Receipts, printed on good paper and in the best style.

APPOINTMENT IN THE UNIVERSITY.—Mr. William Lewis, of Ann Arbor, has received the appointment of Director of Anatomy from the Board of the University.

CENTRAL RAIL ROAD EARNINGS.—The earnings of the Michigan Central Railroad for October were $209,988.08 against $209,938.83 for the same month last year. The decrease in earnings expenses will fully counterbalance the falling off of receipts.

HAVE YOU SEEN THEM?—That superb engraving, "The Village Blacksmith," and the beautiful Art Journal, which are furnished to subscribers of the Cosmopolitan Art Association, can now be seen at H. B. Denman's Banking Office, for a short time only. See advertisement elsewhere headed "New Features."

THE FIRST SNOW.—On Friday night last, the first snow of winter was heralded by quite a severe snow-storm from the north-east, accompanied by a "cold, wintry" wind. The snow fell to the depth of about an inch, and the country "round about" presents an extremely wintry aspect.

The Michigan Journal of Education, for November, is received. The number contains an article by Mr. F. W. Munson, Principal of the Dowagiac Union School, on the State Teacher's Association, at Niles, on the 17th August last, on the question of Free Schools. Published by John M. Gregory, Ann Arbor, $1.00 per annum in advance.

MOORE'S RURAL NEW YORKER.—We would recommend this agricultural and literary paper to the attention of farmers and others. It is the best agricultural paper we have known of, and is being a large paper for $5; six copies for $10. Published by D. D. T. Moore, Rochester, N. Y.

THIEVES ABOUT.—Mr. Chas. Brown, of this village, had a number of fine shirts taken from the clothes line on Tuesday night last. The thief had probably visited other lines in the neighborhood, as he is getting over the fence he dropped an article of women's wearing apparel, which had evidently been taken on the same evening. Our citizens will do well to keep a sharp look out for the rascal.

CONCERT.—A grand concert of vocal music will be given by Mr. B. Bailey's class, at the Baptist Church, in this village, on Tuesday evening, the 23d instant. A decidedly rich treat will be expected, as the choir is in excellent preparation, and will sing about 40 pieces. Four choruses from Handel's Messiah will be performed. None should fail to attend and see what our singers can do. Admission, 20 cents each. Children and members of families represented in the class, half price. Doors open at 6 1/2 o'clock—Concert to commence at 7.

Thanksgiving Day will be observed in the following States, by appointment of their several Executives, as follows:

Maine	November 25
New Hampshire	" 25
Massachusetts	" 25
Connecticut	" 25
Mississippi	" 25
Michigan	" 25
New York	" 25
Pennsylvania	" 18

AUTUMN.—[Here is a rollicking piece, by Tom Hood, which is precisely adapted to the occasion:]

Summer's gone and over,
Fogs are falling down,
And with rustling wings
Autumn's downy down.
Boughs are daily rilled
By the gusty breeze,
And the book of Nature
Giveth short of leaves.
Round the tops of houses
Swallows, as they fly,
Give, like yearly tenants,
Notice to quit.
Skies of flecked temper
Feed by turns and through
Night and day together,
Taking half and half.

TO CAMPAIGN SUBSCRIBERS.—With this issue express the subscriptions of about one hundred of our campaign subscribers. The names of those who wish to retain every one of them as permanent patrons, if they are pleased or satisfied with our paper. During the year we shall pay more attention to general news and miscellaneous reading than we could well do during the campaign, and hope to make it an acceptable family paper. We respectfully request all who wish to remain subscribers to signify their intention either in person or by letter to the persons who procured their campaign subscriptions, who we doubt not, will oblige us by communicating their desire. If any do not wish longer to continue subscribers they can return this paper to us through the post office, and such as do not signify their desire to stop in some of these ways, we shall continue to supply regularly, and consider them regular subscribers.

FORTHCOMING PUBLICATIONS.—The celebrated Boston publishers, Phillips, Sampson & Co., 15 Winter street, announce that on Saturday, the 15th instant, they will publish the "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," by Oliver W. Holmes. It will be issued in one volume, 12 mo., 250 pp., in handsome style, with characteristic illustrations by Hoppa.

It is superfluous at this day, to say anything in praise of "The Autocrat." During the years that has passed, probably more than a hundred thousand readers have eagerly opened the numbers of the Atlantic Monthly as they have appeared, and turned them to these inimitable articles. No contributions to magazines, either in England or America, have ever attained such instant and universal popularity. They have hit the public at the point where all men agree; and it is because they are full of the nature that make all men kin.

The same firm, on the same day, will publish "Poor and Proud," or "The Fortune of Kelly Redburn," by Oliver Optic, author of the "Book Club," "All Aboard," &c. This is a book for juveniles, and from the success that the author's former works have received, will no doubt meet with a happy reception. 62 1/2 cents.

"Karl Kroyler," and "Walter Sydon," are two more beautiful books for children, fully illustrated. They will also appear on the coming Saturday. Price, 50 cents each.
